

Name _____

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. What was the problem in the story?
How was the problem solved?
Have you ever experienced a problem like this?
If so, how was it solved?
If no, would you have solved it the same way or in a different way? Explain why.
2. If you could change one part in the book what part would it be?
Why would you change this part?
What would you change it to?
3. What was the most interesting part in the story?
Why was it interesting?
4. Are you like any of the characters in the story?
Which ones?
How are you alike?
How are you different?
5. What part of the story can you relate to your own life?
Tell why.
6. Is the story make-believe or true to life?
How do you know?
What moral or lesson did you learn from this story?